

Dana

Visioning the dream awake

Suggested Interview Questions for Dana Mrkich
Author of A New Chapter

- 1) Your book A New Chapter has been called ‘a vision of hope in a world gone mad’. What do you mean by ‘A New Chapter’?
- 2) Who is the book written for?
- 3) You say all we have to do in this new chapter to make it the best chapter possible is be the best page we can be. How do we do that?
- 4) You talk about listening to your instincts and following your intuition a lot. How can we tune in to our intuition?
- 5) The book suggests several times that most of us aren’t behind the wheel of our own car, or living our true story? What does that mean?
- 6) You say that being the best page we can be is simple: all we have to do is be our true self. Why do so many of us find it so hard to be our true self? What is our true self anyway?
- 7) Do you really think that any one person can make a difference in how the world is going to unfold over the next few years?

- 8) In A New Chapter you keep referring to issues like global peace, climate change, the distribution of wealth and resources – what does this have to do with our personal growth journey?
- 9) Why do you feel so passionately about the role the media is playing?
- 10) You talk about the need for a merging between things that have previously been separate: consciousness and action, spirituality and the physical; power and ethics; aren't these things opposites?
- 11) The book brings up the prophecies around 2012. What do you think is going to happen?
- 12) Do you really think the world is ready for a complete change like this?
- 13) What do you mean by the Return of the Divine Feminine?
- 14) Why is it so important to feel our feelings?
- 15) Why did you write A New Chapter?
- 16) What will people get from reading this book?
- 17) What is one thing that people can do starting right now to create their best self, live their best life and help the world into its best possible new reality?
- 18) Where can people buy the book and how can they contact you if they want a private Soul Session?

*